PROJECT NO. 176

"Court House"
Fulton, Calloway County,
Missouri.

This building was built in the year 1856 and when built was considered to be the largest in this part of the State of Missouri.

The Town Clock on the building was placed in its present position in 1857.

The City of Fulton was incorporated as a City in 1858.

This is a two story brick building with attic, mansard roof with squat rectangular towers on each corner. In the center of the building and carried on the intersecting corridor walls. An octagonal clock tower of wood surmounts the main roof. Interesting cornice and frieze of wood surrounds the entire building and the main front is adorned by a two story portico with large brick columns with stone caps and bases in the Tuscan Order.
